

Forgiveness

He killed her father
She said I forgive you
He killed her mother
She said I forgive you
He killed her sister
She said I forgive you
He killed his brother
She said I forgive you

He is a racist
They forgive him
He is a supremacist
They forgive him
He is a hate monger
They forgive him
He is a great monster
They forgive him

The victims are all black and Christian
Devastated families each heart broken
The killer is an evil incarnation
With no remorse nor contrition
Why then the folks have a belief mistaken
Just because Jesus let foes be forgiven
An eye for an eye have they forgotten
Rushing to forgive even the Satan?

Sure they can't cast the first stone
Nor can they judge on their own
But they know that it's God alone
Who decides punishment or absolution?
